

This petition would open a massive loophole in the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law, which would result in a large increase in annoying, unrequested calls from businesses. Just because I have a bank account doesn't mean I want the bank calling me every evening trying to sell me equity lines or any other services. Please preserve our freedom from sales calls!